AMEND Senate Bill No. 3095*

House Bill No. 3399

by adding the following language at the end of Section 5, subsection (a):

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an insurer of a health insurance policy may exclude prescription contraceptives if the coverage required under this section is contrary to the religious tenets of a group or entity on whose behalf the health insurance policy is offered and the group or entity is operated, supervised or controlled by or in connection with a bona fide religious institution as defined in title 48, chapter 101, part 5.
